Dear Mr Ockwell

RE: Crown – China Investigation

We refer to earlier correspondence.

In the course of the class action processes, some additional documents have been received by Crown relating to the prosecution in China of Jason O'Connor. These documents were not previously in Crown's possession.

Copies of these documents are attached.

We do not yet have English translations of the documents in Mandarin, but if we obtain translations, we will provide them to you.

If you have any queries in relation to any aspect of the above, please feel free to contact us or Mr Josh Preston of Crown.

Yours faithfully
MinterEllison
