There is a guy in this training who just said "I worked for VIP and we knew money laundering was happening. We were instructed to think of ways to get around money laundering so players could come in and play"

4:04 pm

Sorry what

4:05 pm

Yeah, he works for VIP gaming

4:06 pm

Just telling everyone out loud

4:06 pm

[REDACTED] is in here

4:06 pm

He's now telling the teacher how people would get large sums of money into the country

4:06 pm

Circumventing laws and whatnot

4:06 pm

Seriously, HR is in the fucking room...

4:07 pm

Apparently we used to make incidental charges at Towers. We'd have an international player, charge them an incidental charge on their hotel bill for $10,000,000, they'd pay on card. That money would then get sent to the cage for them to collect.

4:08 pm

This guy is nuts

4:09 pm

I need to find out who he is...
