Meeting w/ [redacted] JWS, M

Alford we had received a report of some things had said.

generally said these things were said in the context of international business falling, and that it was a good thing.

put money banking to him. He generally advised that he understood it to have worked as a means of getting funds out of China. People happen to be helpful for his business in the past.

He advised that he had understood ML to have found upon use of underground channels to get money to Pakistan. Didn't know anyone who actually did it, but heard rumors that it happened.

Described the effecting, consistent w/ security report. Heard rumors that people would meet in the hotel room to describe them.

Also understood/heard rumors that items used on bills to help get cash out.

Generally, we discussed his role as a head, and progression through the business. He observed that there was a tension in his role, which was caused by the competing nature of KPOs
